

Parallel Thematic Workshops - Part II

Istanbul Principles for CSO Development Effectiveness

4th of December 2017

15.45 – 17.15

Objectives of the workshop	Based on the Istanbul Principles for CSO Development Effectiveness, the workshop aims at having a discussion with the examples of implementation of self-regulatory mechanisms for CSOs in the Black Sea region and European region. In order to start the discussions, a few presentations will be made by resource persons from the Republic of Moldova who apply ethical principles in their daily activity. During the workshop, the participants will share their thoughts about how they can respect the Istanbul Principles in their daily activity, how a NGOs Ethic Code can be elaborated and why it's important to be transparent and accountable in relations with partners and beneficiaries, especially when we are asking from the Governments to respect similar principles.
Speakers/Resource persons	Moderator: Antonița Fonari – Executive Director, Platform for Active Citizenship and Human Rights Partnership Speakers: Serghei Neicovcen – Executive Director, Centrul CONTACT; Ina Coşeru – President, National Environmental Center; Andrei Isac – President, EcoContact; Iulia Sirghi-Zolotco – Director of Administrative, Financial and Communication Services, Expert-Grup.
Other information (e.g. useful links to be sent to the participants before event)	Istanbul Principles Стамбульские Принципы Principiile de la Istanbul